GAUSSIAN BLUR

가우시안 블러

Woah..

Isn't it nice?
Is it alright? I always wanted to come here but I wouldn't have been too keeping alone and I wouldn't be likely to come with another guy

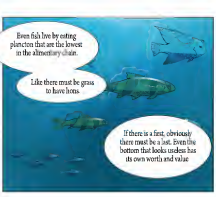
So you like places like this?
I told you I used to swim.
Ah, yeah

I looked so cool at that time and my body ain't bad.
Then why did you stop?

Cuz I was horribly bad.
Ah...

You know, I hated measuring records, making end hard things..
Then when I got to hate everything, I was always the dead last, so I just dropped it.

So that's why I like people who are lasts.
Huh?



Even fish live by eating plancton that are the lowest in the alimentary chain.
Like there must be grass to have lions.
If there is a first, obviously there must be a last. Even the bottom that looks useless has its own worth and value

So isn't that how it should be to have things work better?

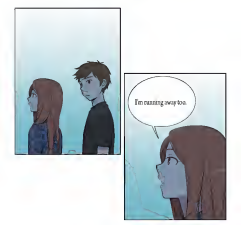
Anyway, if there's someone that is willing to fill that awkward and miserable place, shouldn't I at least thank him?
But I couldn't bear to be at the bottom anymore. That's why I dropped. I ran away. So then it became easier for me.

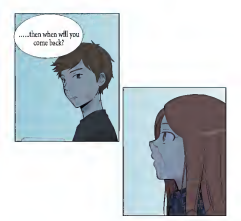
After that, apart from washing, I didn't get close to water but it feels good to see fish swimming from time to time, doesn't it?

There's a guy I know who ran away.
Is it really brash to runaway because it's too hard and unbearable?
From several things...



I'm running away too.

No emotions no thoughts.
Just letting the time pass.



.....then when will you come back?

When I would feel that living is more fun. Maybe at the moment I'd like to spend my time wiser.

Hey, I don't get what you mean but anyway, it means that you find living is boring?

you know
Huh?

Do you have a boyfriend?

Woo Yoon Hoo.

It's been a while.

I came here hoping to see you, and it worked. It also seems like you're surprised, but recently you haven't been using your sixth sense to get around. Instead you're walking?
